

EVERYONE CARRIES A BASKET BAG

AT PALM BEACH and other U. S. resorts, the universal handbag was a basket. What started as a fad a few seasons ago turned into a national habit. Department stores—even Florida fruit stands—met the demand with bags ranging from woven metal baskets to the season's most popular "motto" bag (r.) — had yet to catch up with whims such as the native fruit hamper.

Newest: fruit hamper carried by Jeri Rowen

Mrs. Walter Reisinger and her "motto" bag

Mrs. Robert Rasmussen's gold-and-silver metal basket-bag

At Everglades Club: Mrs. Alfred Peyton Jenkins, silver basket

Most popular: split-wood "motto" hamper

Mrs. Messmore Kendall's miniature wine hamper