

Quick

October 3, 1949: p. 19

● CRIME

Hollywood Shakedown

Dapper gambler Mickey Cohen (above, with wife) was accused of running a ring that used girls to get wealthy Hollywoodians into “delicate” situations where they could be photographed. Pictures were sold to victims at prices up to $75,000, it was charged; then Cohen and the girls split 60-40.

OldMagazineArticles.com