

SPECIAL ARMY BADGES

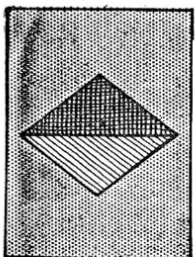

1
"For Service Rendered" Badge.

"FOR SERVICE RENDERED."—Silver badge worn by men discharged from Army after active service.

2
"Wounded" Badge

"WOUNDED."—Gold perpendicular stripe worn on edge of left cuff, denoting "Wounded." The number of stripes indicates the number of wounds received upon different occasions.

3
Battalion Mark.

BATTALION MARK.—A coloured patch of various shapes (either of one, two, or three colours) worn at top of left sleeve indicating battalion to which soldier belongs.

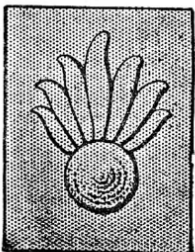

4
Provost-Marshal.

PROVOST-MARSHAL.—A red brassard bearing the letters "P.M." in black; "A.P.M." signifies Assistant Provost-Marshal.

5
Military Police.

MILITARY POLICE.—White brassard with black letters. Cap has an all-red top, khaki rim and peak.

6
Service Bomber.

SERVICE BOMBER.
—Khaki bomb with red flames.