

THE NEW SWEATER GIRL

THE new women's sweaters will probably disappoint collectors of pin-up art. They are designed, oddly enough, to appeal to women—the women of taste and discrimination who will wear them. The subdeb's sloppy joe and the starlet's preshrunk bosom accentuator have vanished, like all bad fashions. The new sweaters are chic, sleek and unusually appropriate for Christmas gifts. Comfortable, not too expensive and easy to pack, they are the elegant answer to the elegant or casual occasion.
