

HITLER'S WOLVES in RED BEAR'S CLOTHING

Ex-Nazi Colonel Paul Markgraf. Made Police-President of Berlin by the Russians, he is now top organizer of "People's Police," Red German Army.

These Nazis Once Strutted and Slaughtered for Hitler;
Now They're Igniting Vast Powderkeg of Red Terror

■ Biggest news story this year is that the two greatest forces for evil in our time—communism and nazism—have finally joined hands. Their goal: extermination of freedom and decency. Their target: the infant West German democracy. Their immediate method: creation of fear and distrust through Hitler's favorite weapon—anti-Semitism. (Evidence: Extermination of Red Czech leader Slansky; expulsion of Ana Pauker; recent arrest of 9 Russian-Jewish doctors for alleged "medical murder" of Soviet bigwigs.)

But most sensational story has never been told. FOCUS reveals for the first time how a group of Hitler generals, in league with Moscow, have worked undercover for 10 years preparing a human powderkeg to blast the free world.

HITLER'S WOLVES

Here's how it all started. Back in 1943, even while struggling against advancing German armies, Russians looked over collection of Nazi generals (trapped on battlefield), and packed most promising off to a Red indoctrination program (the "Antifa" schools).

Focus correspondents in Germany have reached across border into Red zone to get the following cases of former Nazis now training communist hordes:

Colonel Paul Markgraf, one-time commander of 40th Panzer Division; Major General Otto Korfes, once handed Knight's Cross by Hitler; Vincenz Mueller, chief of staff of Hitler's 17th Army Corps; Martin Lattman, commander of Hitler's 14th Panzer Division; Walter Lewess-Litzman, chief of staff of Luftwaffe; General Arno von Lenski.

Ex-Nazi General Vincenz Mueller, responsible for massacre of hundreds of Jews in Poland, is Chief of Staff of "People's Police."

These ex-Nazis are today training East Germany's Red army! This is each man's job:

General Korfes: Chief of Central Archives of the Soviet Zone;

Martin Lattman: Chief of training Red's People's Police;

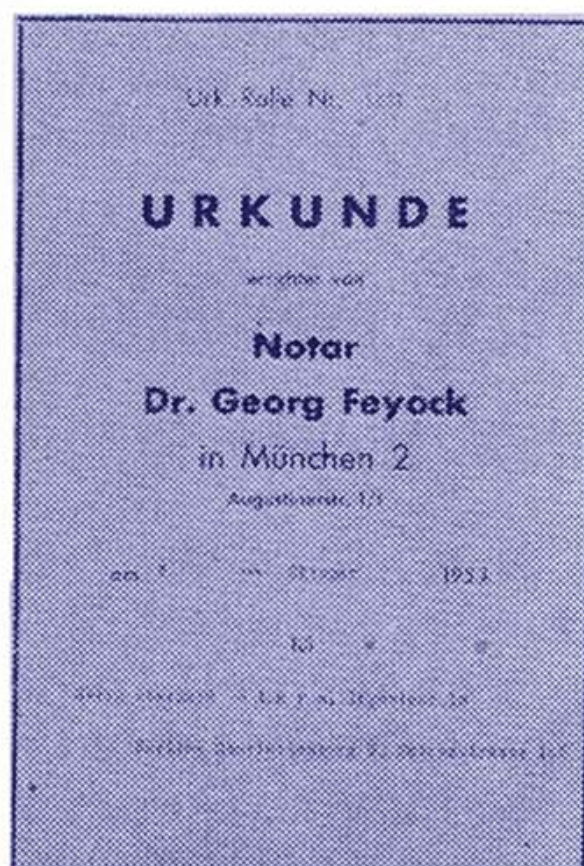

Walter Lewess-Litzman: chief propagandist of Red German papers, liaison man to former Nazi Army friends in West Germany. Lewess-Litzman is key figure. A contact man of the oily Goebbels school, he recruits, and finances activities of, former Nazis living in Western zones. (Ed. note—see Stern affidavit photo.)

General Arno von Lenski: chief of Red zone's National Democratic party (Hitler's was National Socialist).

The Kremlin makes friends easily—and without discrimination. Hitler's wolves are masquerading in Russian bearskin—and all of Germany (plus entire free world) lies in danger before their ravennings.
