WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE MARNE, July 11.—On the lawn of a beautiful old château on the banks of the war-famed Marne yesterday afternoon occurred the first large presentation of distinguished service crosses awarded to members of the United States Marine Corps for their heroic deeds in the fighting northwest of Château-Thierry in the month of June. An American General pinned crosses on the breasts of thirty-seven of the fighters.

Crosses had been awarded to more than a hundred of the Marines, but the rest were either dead or in hospitals. The deeds of exceptional bravery, for participation in which the crosses were awarded, were summed up in an address by the General commanding. His order said:

"It is with inexpressible pride and satisfaction that your commander recounts your glorious deeds on the field of battle. In the early days of June on a front of twenty kilometers, after night marches and with only the reserve rations which you carried, you stood like a wall against the enemy advance on Paris. For this timely action you have received the thanks of the French people whose homes you saved and the generous praise of your comrades in arms.

Here are the names of the men who received medals yesterday:
