

THE American

DECEMBER • 1941

How to spot a MINUTE MAN

Here are the sleeve insignia by which you can identify the various groups of U. S. Civilian Defense Workers—men and women, boys and girls, who volunteer for home duty to protect you in war emergency:

AIR-RAID WARDENS

Safeguard civilians during air attack

MEDICAL CORPS

Gives first aid in disasters

AUXILIARY POLICE

Aid regular force in emergency

RESCUE SQUADS

Save civilians trapped in debris

BOMB SQUADS

Dispose of perilous time bombs

NURSES' AIDES CORPS

Gives assistance to trained nurses

AUXILIARY FIREMEN

Help fight blazes during air attacks

STAFF CORPS

Administers Civilian Defense

MINUTE MAN

FIRE WATCHERS

Spot and fight incendiary bombs

MESSENGERS

Carry emergency dispatches

DRIVERS' CORPS

Handles private car transportation

EMERGENCY FOOD AND HOUSING CORPS

Provides for the homeless

DECONTAMINATION CORPS

Handles defense against war gas

DEMOLITION AND CLEARANCE CREWS

Clean up air-raid wreckage

ROAD-REPAIR CREWS

Reopen streets after air raids