

VANITY FAIR

April, 1916

SHOPPING FOR THE WELL-DRESSED MAN

Golf Clothes

The golf shoes on this page are not novelties. I have published them before. And I do so again knowing that they have been proved satisfactory by many wearers. Perhaps you haven't tried them. They are strong comfortable and durable and their hob nails afford an excellent grip on the most slippery ground.

Ash pot, $2.50; with lighting attachment, $3.50; with smoke consumer, $4.50

French silk bow ties well suited to outdoor wear. Various patterns, $2 each

Golf Oxfords of tan calf, Blucher cut. Soft and comfortable yet strong and durable, $6.50

All white buck shoe for tennis or yachting, with rubber sole, $8.50

High cut golf shoe of tan calf. Sole and heel nail-studded. Reinforced over instep, $7.50