

GREAT COATS

Khaki regulation mixture Great Coating and the plain khaki British Warm material are of a character sufficiently hard to withstand any weather and are both waterproofed.

Infantry Pattern 84/- & 105/-

Cavalry Pattern 105/- & 126/-

Include Regimental buttons but not badges of rank.

"THRESHER" TRENCH COAT

Full particulars of this invaluable garment designed to meet the emergencies of modern warfare found on pages 25-29.

OldMagazineArticles.com

The Stars & Stripes: September 13, 1918

THE 'CUTE COAT

recommended by War Office first winter of the war, is the Thresher —the model for every officer's trench coat but uncopyable in respect of its uncrackable Melcam interlining.

Get yours while the getting is quick. November sees us always swamped with orders.

PRICES:

The Thresher£5 5 0—82s.)

Detachable Kamelcott

Lining.£2 2 0—31s.

Cavalry pattern with knee

flaps and saddle gusset. £1 1 0—8s.

Send size of chest and approximate height, and to avoid delay, enclose cheque when ordering.

THE THRESHER COAT

MADE ONLY BY

THRESHER & GLENNY

Est. 1753

Est. 1753

Military Tailors and Outfitters

152 and 153 Strand, London, W. C. 2

By Appointment to H. M. the King

OldMagazineArticles.com