

YANK

THE ARMY

WEEKLY

July 14, 1944

MAN GETS LADY

LONDON—The problem of what to do with the Allies first woman war prisoner, the sniper known as Myra, who was captured in civilian clothes in northern France, has been solved. A Home Office spokesman has announced that she probably will be sent to the internment camp for enemy aliens on the Isle of Man.